

Dear FCC,

I am writing on behalf of KLOVE Christian radio, I am writing to show my support of the radio station. KLOVE has been a part of my life for almost 5 years now, and I can listen to them on the radio or the internet. I don't know what I would do if KLOVE and other Christian radio stations were taken off the air. Unless you have walked a mile in the shoes of the people who support and listen to KLOVE, you have no idea what kind of comfort they bring to us. If KLOVE were to be removed off the air, then I want other, non-Christian radio stations removed as well. I am sick of the sex-oriented music, TV shows and movies that come across our air waves; KLOVE is the light in a long hallway. They are what gets me through some days. Please do not take them off the air.
